

CPX
Treasury Department

Office of the Secretary,

Washington D. C. May 8th 1886.

To the Director of the Mint.

Sir:

I have to advise you that the letter of 29th ultimo from the Superintendent of the Mint at Philadelphia with the enclosures, referred by you to this office on the 6th instant asking that certain improvements to Vault No. 6. in said Mint be made, has this day been referred to the Supervising Architect for the necessary action in regard to the improvements desired, as soon as an appropriation is available.

It is not practicable at present to remove the surplus silver to the Treasury as suggested in your endorsement.

Respectfully yours

C. S. Fairchild

Acting ^S Secretary.

| | |
|--------------|-------------------------------------|
| No. 27768 | DIRECTOR MINT. RECD. MAY 10 1886 |
|--------------|-------------------------------------|

Treasury Department,
BUREAU OF THE MINT.

May 8, 1886.

C. S. Fairchild

Acting Secretary ^{Supervisor.}

States that necessary improvements to Vault No. 6, Philadelphia Mint, will be made as soon as appropriation is available, and that present removal of surplus silver is impracticable.

Bureau of the Mint,
May 10, 1886.

Respectfully referred to the Superintendent of the Mint at Philadelphia, for his information.

James A. Mitchell
 Director of the Mint

[Abstract:] States that necessary improvements to Vault No. 6...

Copy

Treasury Department,
Office of the Secretary,
Washington, D.C.,
May 8, 1886

To the Director of the Mint,

Sir:

I have to advise you that the letter of 29th ultimo from the Superintendent of the Mint at Philadelphia with the enclosures, referred by you to this office on the 5th instant asking the certain improvements to vault No. 6 in said Mint be made, has this day been referred to the Supervising Architect for the necessary action in regard to the improvements desired, as soon as an appropriation is available.

It is not practicable at present to remove the surplus silver to the Treasury as suggested in your endorsement.

Respectfully yours,
C.S. Fairchild
Acting S. Secretary.

[Noted on back:]

Bureau of the Mint,
May 10, 1886

Respectfully referred to the Superintendent of the Mint at Philadelphia, for his information.

James P. Kimball
Director of the Mint